PETER PANYOCZKI
(b. 1953 - )

Peter Panyoczki is a highly regarded mixed media artist, working in a hybrid of forms and mediums including painting, sculpture, installation, photography and digital technology.

Panyoczki grew up in Zurich, Switzerland - his family moved there from Budapest, Hungary, during the 1956 Revolution. He attended the University of Zurich, obtaining a Master's Degree in 1980 (language, literature and art history) and he is fluent in six languages.

Prior to Covid in 2020, Panyoczki lived between New Zealand and Switzerland – he was permanently on the move and this was reflected in his work. In October 2018 Panyoczki completed a three month residency in Vladivostok, Russia.

Panyoczki belongs to the 1980s generation of artists who polemically rejected conceptual art, yet did not simply return to figurative art, instead having a conceptual interest in the question of art as a medium.

A common feature in Panyoczki's works is the presence of texture, be it actual surface texture, or the representation thereof in photographic media.
